Socred MLA Votes 'No' Once More

Social Credit MLA Irvine Corbett, who voted against Attorney - General Bonner's salary vote because of his handling of the Sommers case, voted against the government again yesterday.

This time, the Yale member opposed a proposed tax of 12 cents a gallon on diesel, butane and propane fuels used by commercial trucks — a two-cent increase over the present levy.

Mr. Corbett's main objection to the "discriminatory legislation" was that it requires trucking firms to keep extra records, since the tax will be levied on mileage instead of at the pumps.

He was the only Social Credit member to oppose the tax.
